REPAIRING FRAYED ALLIANCES

World hopes for renewed US cooperation under Biden

ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mexico City

WORLD LEADERS WELCOMED into their ranks the new US President Joe Biden, noting their most pressing problems, including the Covid-19 pandemic and climate change, require multilateral cooperation, an approach his predecessor Donald Trump ridiculed.

Many expressed hope Biden would right US democracy two weeks after rioters stormed the Capitol, shaking the faith of those fighting for democracy in their own countries.

Governments targeted and sanctioned under Trump embraced the chance for a fresh start with Biden, while some heads of state who lauded Trump's blend of nationalism and populism were more restrained in their expectations.

But the chance to repair frayed alliances and work together on global problems carried the day.

Biden "understands the importance of cooperation among nations," said former Colombian president and Nobel Peace Prize winner Juan Manuel Santos, who left office in 2018. "As a matter of fact, if we don't cooperate, all nations, to fight climate change, then we will all perish. It's as simple as that."

French President Emmanuel Macron and Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama were among those welcoming US attention to climate change.

After Trump withdrew the US from the Paris climate accord, Biden reversed the move in the first hours of his presidency Wednesday.

With Biden, "we will be stronger to face the challenges of our time. Stronger to build our future. Stronger to protect our planet," Macron wrote on Twitter. "Welcome back to the Paris Agreement!"

Other European allies saw a chance to come in out of the cold after strained relationships with the Trump administration.

Biden to order masks, traveller quarantines

Amazon offers assist with US Covid-19 vaccine distribution

Seattle, January 21

HELPING HAND

- Amazon is offering its colossal operations network and advanced technologies to assist President Joe Biden
- The president vowed to get 100 million Covid-19 vaccinations to Americans in his first 100 days in office cine distribution.

Biden is also depending on Congress to provide $1.9 trillion for economic relief and Covid-19 response.

There are a litany of complaints from states that say they are not getting enough vaccine even as they are being asked to vaccinate a broader swath of Americans. According to data through January 20 from Johns Hopkins University, the seven-day rolling average for daily new deaths in the US rose over the past two weeks from 2,677.3 on January 6 to 3,054.1 on Wednesday.

More than 400,000 people in the US have died from Covid-19.

Saudi Arabia redefines role as world's defender of Muslims

BLOOMBERG
January 21

WHEN CHINESE DIPLOMAT Tan Banglin defended his country's treatment of Muslims amid an international outcry, his comments were less remarkable than where he made them.

In a column last July for one of the most widely read newspapers in Saudi Arabia, the traditional protector of Muslims worldwide, Tan talked about how the Communist Party had united with people in Xinjiang province, leading to "great" changes. That's as nations including the US were accusing China of putting Uighurs into detention camps.

The voice given to China's consul general in Jeddah, less than 70 kilometres from Islam's holiest city of Mecca, reflects the new political reckoning under Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman as he prioritises more secular national interests at a critical juncture for the kingdom. And it's one that may serve him well as the administration changes in Washington, despite US opposition to Beijing's actions in Xinjiang.

The Saudi world view is being shaped more by hard-nosed business calculations, shifting geopolitical realities and the emergence of clean energy as a competitor to oil while facing a challenge from Turkey for leadership of the Sunni Muslim sphere.

The kingdom has been less vocal on the Palestinian issue, which for decades was its cause célèbre. Saudi support for the Muslim population has been conspicuous by its absence in the disputed region of Kashmir, with the Pakistan government turning to Turkey while Prince Mohammed increases trade with India.

Prez Biden faces a more confident China after US chaos: As a new US president takes office, he faces a determined Chinese leadership that could be further emboldened by America's troubles at home. The disarray in America, from the rampant Covid-19 pandemic to the January 6 riot at the Capitol, gives China's ruling Communist Party a boost as it pursues its long-running quest for national "rejuvenation", a bid to return the country to what it sees as its rightful place as a major nation. For Joe Biden, sworn in Wednesday as the 46th president, that could make one of his major foreign policy challenges. BLOOMBERG
